

Message from the Office of Student Affairs:

Updated: March 23, 2020, 10.11

Dear CICM Community:

Work from home

Secondary to the announcement from Thammasat University, the Office of Student Affairs and International Relations will remain closed for in-person contact until further notice. Urgent issues may contact the office via our online portals.

Documents

Starting March 24, 13.00, a mailbox will be fashioned at the entry to the office. Please place the document in the mailbox and send a direct message to our Facebook page for an immediate response.

Graduation Rehearsal

Graduation rehearsal is postponed at this time.

Donations

Chulabhorn International College of Medicine is happy to receive donations any community members wish to provide. We also provide a portal to directly give to Thammasat University Chalerm Prakiat Hospital. Please contact Student Affairs for any inquiries, we will do our best to accommodate your generosity during this difficult time.

Microsoft Team

If you have any issues with the online module, please contact Academic Affairs.

We encourage you to monitor developments through the Ministry of Health and WHO websites. We will need your help. A few easy things we can all do include:

- Wash your hands for 20 seconds
- Use hand sanitizer
- Avoid shaking hands
- Disinfect frequently touched objects using a regular household cleaning spray or wipe
- Stay home
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose and mouth.

CICM will continue to work with national and local officials to monitor potential risks. If conditions change, we will update our campus community. Please check our Facebook for updated information. www.facebook.com/CICMTUACTH
